

REUNIONS

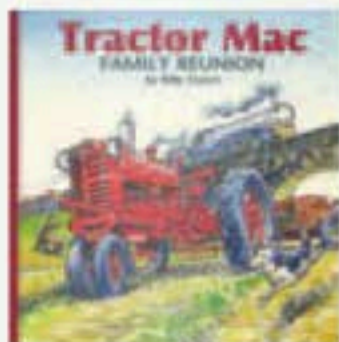

KidsStuff
Icebreakers
Games
reunions play!

Display until July 31, 2014.

VOL 14 NO 4
MAY/JUNE/JULY 2014
$3/USA

Reviews

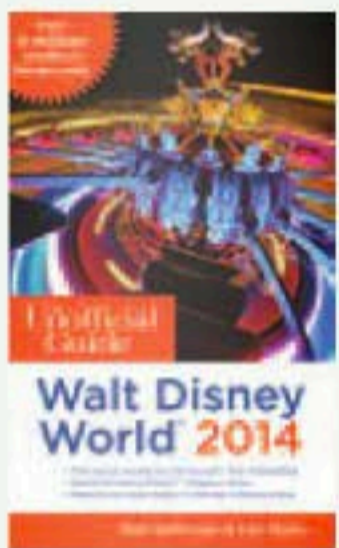

Tractor Mac Family Reunion by Billy Steers ($7.95, hard cover picture book; pre-school to 7; www.tractormac.com).

The tenth storybook in the Tractor Mac series of children's books is Tractor Mac Family Reunion. Iron Dave, a steam train, introduces Tractor Mac to other red tractors just like him. Mac is excited about meeting his new family, but his farm friends help him realize that his real family is right at home at Stony Meadow Farm.

Billy Steers, author and illustrator of the series, combines his love for agricultural machinery, steam engines and farm life to bring to life a great story about family, friends and lots of red tractors.

NOTE! A copy of Tractor Mac Family Reunion is included in the Summer Giveaway Kids' Box! Enter at reunionismag.com/resources/resources_contests. Deadline June 27, 2014.

The Unofficial Guide to Walt Disney World® 2014 by Bob Sehlinger and Len Testa (2014, Keen Communications, Birmingham AL, softcover, 848 pages, $19.99)

The Guide is overwhelming in its size and girth. It will not be mistaken as a pocket guide because there are no pockets large enough, and it weighs over two pounds! This is a research-rich volume that covers all aspects of a Disney World trip. Hotels, restaurants and attractions are rated by the authors and their readers. There are maps galore that take the mystery out of how to enjoy each section of the park. Attractions are rated and ranked by age group, which can be very helpful if you have very young children or grandparents along. What I found very useful is that after hundreds of pages of reviews, the last 25 or so pages of the book are intended to be clipped out and carried with you: maps, reviews, touring plans and good rest areas. A very useful book for anyone planning a Walt Disney World reunion. EW

uKloo adds riddles to treasure hunt

The new uKloo Riddle Edition Treasure Hunt Game (MSRP $17.95 for two or more players ages 7 and up) is an engaging seek-and-find literacy game that combines thinking skills with physically active fun. It encourages kids to call upon their logic and reasoning abilities to solve riddles towards finding a surprise. Kids enjoy the thrill and personal satisfaction of problem-solving their way to success.

NOTE! A copy of uKloo Riddle Edition Treasure Hunt Game is included in the Summer Giveaway Kids Box! Enter at reunionismag.com/resources/resources_contests. Deadline June 27, 2014.

Free puzzles from Activity Village

Activity Village has a large collection of puzzles for kids that you can copy for free and have available for a slow moment or a rainy day. The types of puzzles offered are Sudoku for Kids, Mazes, Tangrams, Grid Copy Puzzles and Word Puzzles. And that's only a small sample of the puzzles already available at Activity Village. Explore for more!

Visit www.ActivityVillage.co.uk.

SEE LOTS MORE IDEAS FOR YOUR ROAD TRIP WITH KIDS ON PINTEREST.COM/REUNIONSMAG ON A BOARD CALLED "ARE WE THERE YET?"

Reunion games for teenagers

Kate Bradley, an eHow Contributor, suggests ideas for teens at reunions.

Teens prefer to be active. Volleyball, basketball or games like Capture the Flag, or paintball. Teens love to swim, play miniature golf or roller skate.

Split teens into teams and send them on a scavenger hunt.

How about board games? Trivial Pursuit, Scene It? ("Twilight"-themed Scene It?), Pictionary or Cranium.

Ask teens to bring their video game consoles, games and controllers. Put all your TVs in one room and have a video game tournament. Purchase a subscription to an online video game rental service. Ask teens in advance which games they would like to play.

Create a jigsaw puzzle from a blown-up family photo and time teens to see who can get it back together fastest.

Scavenger hunt at the Seidemann Family Reunion.

REUNIONS

MAGAZINE

You can now place orders for Reunions magazine products on

Etsy.com/shop/reunionismagazine

REUNIONS

Web page: reunionismag.com

Call: 414.263.4567

Fax: 414.263.6331

e-mail: editor@reunionismag.com

Write: PO Box 11727

Milwaukee, WI 53211-0727